THE 1870 CENSUS INFORMATION INCLUDES:

- NAME
 - AGE
 - SEX
 - COLOR
 - CITIZENSHIP FOR MALES OVER 21
 - PROFESSION, OCCUPATION OR TRADE
 - VALUE OF REAL ESTATE
 - VALUE OF PERSONAL PROPERTY
 - PLACE OF BIRTH
 - WHETHER FATHER &/OR MOTHER WERE FOREIGN-BORN
 - MONTH OF BIRTH IF BORN WITHIN THE YEAR
 - MONTH OF MARRIAGE IF MARRIED WITHIN THE YEAR
 - WHETHER ABLE TO READ OR WRITE, IF OVER AGE 10
 - WHETHER DEAF DUMB, BLIND, INSANE OR IDIOTIC
- BECAUSE SPACE PREVENTS A LISTING OF ALL INFORMATION IN THIS COMPILATION, IT IS ADVISED THAT YOU CHECK THE MICROFILM FOR MORE DETAILS ON THOSE INDIVIDUALS IN WHOM YOU ARE INTERESTED.

NOBODY'S PERFECT . . . and neither is any census. Here, as in any census, you will find ages that don't tally, inexact names, birthplaces misquoted -- and even a 'Mary' listed as a 'male'! None of this takes the value away from the census; it only reminds us to use caution and double-check with other sources.

With thanks, respect, and affection, this book is dedicated to:

Dr. Larry Hoehn, whose purchase and loan of the microfilmed census, reinforced by his encouragement, made this publication possible;

Mr. Med Cashion, who recalled for me memories of his great-uncle, census-taker John B. Cashion, and shared family information and pictures;

my son Greg, whose expertise produced the computer index;

my daughter Linn, my indispensable proofreading assistant;

and all my family, for their patience while I spent many hours with these Perry County residents of 1870.

JOHN B. CASHION, CENSUS-TAKER

The entire 1870 census of Perry County, MO, is in the neat script of John Benjamin Cashion (3 Sep 1844-31 May 1934).

John B. was the son of William D. Cashion (10 Feb 1814-17 Oct 1847) and Sarah Hager (31 Dec 1817-31 Jan 1880) who had emigrated as small children with their families from Lincoln County, N. Carolina. After his father died at the age of 33, John B. and his four brothers learned the skills of early life in Missouri at the knee of their uncle Archibal Little Hager. All five Cashion brothers served in the Union forces during the Civil War; John in the infantry.

About 1866 John married Miss Emma Block, daughter of Hyman Block, one of Perryville's early dry goods merchants. In this census he gives his own occupation as 'auctioneer'. In December, 1871, the Perryville Union mentions "J.B. Cashion's Notion Store." Politically the Cashions were ardent Republicans, and John B. held minor political jobs throughout his lifetime, also working for his brother Arch H. Cashion in such pursuits as real estate and a sawmill. Both were original members of the G.A.R. (Organization of Civil War Veterans.) As time went by and members died, John B. Cashion finally became the last member in good standing of the Difani Post of the G.A.R. at Perryville.

John B. & Emma (Block) Cashion were the parents of four children: Jessie, who married a Chester, IL druggist, T.W. Tackenberg; Edwin (born 11 Nov 1871), who married 30 Dec 1901 a widow, Dora Guth - he worked on the county newspapers and was elected county clerk in 1910; Lynn, who moved to Chester where he worked for his brother-in-law, and never married; and Corinne, who married Henry Carruthers, raised at Yount and eventually Mayor of Cape Girardeau.

Enthusiastically patriotic the Cashions took prominent part in local celebrations of national holidays. Their home on south Main Street was noted for its flowers, including a vast display of running roses that covered trees, shrubbery and the front fence.

SPELLING . . . we have tried to maintain throughout the spelling as written by J. B. Cashion in 1870. However, his ornate capital letters are often hard to interpret, with middle initials especially open to question -- for instance, Js and Is frequently appear identical. (So, please read middle initials "with a grain of salt" and consult original to do your own speculation.) He used 'Francis' and 'Frances' interchangeably for male and female, and the language barrier occasionally added confusion to his rendering of some German female names such as Christina and Justina. He always used the spelling Catharine, which may have not been the spelling used by some Katies of the county, and Jessee. These are very small idiosyncrasies since, in an era when census-takers were noted for their short-comings, he has left us a census excellent to study.

U.S. Postal Abbreviations used for states

OCCUPATIONS . . . The census lists occupations, but since the great majority of Perry County men are listed as 'farmers' and women as 'keeping house', only the exceptions are listed here. Therefore, where no occupation is listed, read 'farmer' for males, 'keeping house' for women. In every case where 'merch.' or 'merchant' is listed, the complete designation in the census was 'retail dry goods merchant'. A few men listed a dual occupation (such as 'farmer & cooper') - only 'cooper' is listed here. Young men and women in the households are frequently given the designation 'working on farm' and 'domestic servant'. Undoubtedly, these designations are often what they appear to be, but occasionally the designation is given to a young child, or an old person, who was probably just 'extended family' living in the household. This possibility should be considered in individual instances. Because most of the Perry County residents were white, only exceptions are noted here. NUMBERS reflect the order in which households were visited by the census-taker.

Perry County was evidently a good place to live in 1870, because some of the folks had lived there quite awhile. . . the oldest citizens listed in the census were:

Nancy McCarver, 100
 Ann Morrison, 95
 Anthony Garner, 90
 Nancy Mattingly, 89

And finding the living very good indeed were such citizens as James Burgee, who listed assets of $15,000 real estate and $6,000 personal property, Harris Kinnison, $12,000, Joseph C. Killian, $10,000, Bernard Cissell, $15,000, and the widow of Leon Delassus, Mary L. Delassus, with a worth of $27,000. The German immigrants were also prospering: George Koch, brewer, listed $10,000 assets and Clemens Schindler, a miller from Baden, $20,000.
